WORDS OF THE WISE

Gear up for the change!

The greatest discovery of all time is that a person can change his future by merely changing his attitude – So rightly quoted by Oprah Winfrey.

Ms. Seema Sabhlok
Principal

Change is inevitable because it is a natural part of life. Nothing stays the same forever, and everything is subject to change, whether we like it or not. Change can come from many different sources, such as technological advancements, environmental factors, social and cultural shifts, and personal growth and development.

Some changes are gradual and take place over a long period of time, while others can happen suddenly and unexpectedly. For example, the COVID-19 pandemic brought about sudden and significant changes to the way we live and work, and it has forced us to adapt and adjust to a new normal.

While change can be difficult and uncomfortable, it is also necessary for growth and progress. Without change, we would be stuck in the same patterns and routines, and we would never be able to learn and evolve as individuals and as a society.

By embracing change and being open to new experiences and ideas, we can expand our horizons and reach our full potential. While change may not always be easy, it is a necessary part of life, and it can lead to positive outcomes if we are willing to embrace it.

In the movie Karate Kid, the main character, Daniel, moves from New Jersey to California and finds himself the target of a group of bullies led by a boy named Johnny. Daniel soon discovers that Johnny and his friends are members of a local karate dojo, and he decides to learn karate in order to defend himself.

Daniel meets an elderly maintenance man named Mr. Miyagi, who agrees to teach him karate. However, Mr. Miyagi's methods are unconventional and seem unrelated to karate. He has Daniel do repetitive tasks like waxing cars and painting fences, and Daniel becomes frustrated and impatient, feeling like he is not learning anything useful.

However, as he continues to work with Mr. Miyagi, Daniel begins to see the value in the seemingly meaningless tasks he's been assigned. He realizes that they have been teaching him fundamental karate techniques, and he becomes much more effective in defending himself against the bullies.

Through his experiences with Mr. Miyagi, Daniel learns that change and growth can be uncomfortable and require hard work and patience. He learns that sometimes we have to trust the process and have faith in our teachers and mentors, even when we don't understand what they're trying to teach us.

The story of "Karate Kid" demonstrates that change is often challenging, but if we are willing to embrace it and work hard, we can achieve great things and overcome even the toughest obstacles.

My dear students, you are at a threshold of a major change in your life. While I pray to the Almighty that the change should be for your better, it can also be challenging. Gear up for it with fortitude and accept the inevitable with grace. Steer your wheel towards a bright future. God bless you!

Dear Students,

Academic year 2022-2023 is a special one for all of us as we celebrate the completion of 25 years of our establishment. This batch is special to me as I taught you for two different years of your high school. In your Std VIII during the first year of lockdown wherein you taught me more of technology than I taught you Science, and once again in Std X when I was your Science II teacher.

The journey from June 2022 till date in the Science II class has been a memorable one. I have seen your ups and downs, your anger, frustration and joys, your happy days and the days where you troubled us till we lost control....But the carefree batch which was finding new ways to create trouble suddenly became serious towards studies in the second term.

School has ended and a new journey awaits. The last day of school has closed one door and opened a broad path of opportunities. Grab it and move ahead.

I want to thank each one of you for the warmth, the memories we made in Std X as it was the first year when school had become normal once again and the learning that we shared together. I will miss walking into XG or peeping into your classrooms as I walk on the corridors. I will miss your greetings near the water area and the washrooms where I normally find you if you are not in class.....

I wish you happy adventures, new friendships and amazing experiences in the journey ahead and before I end , here is a teacher's wish I picked up from the internet.....

I hope that the days come easy and the moments pass slow,

And each road leads you where you want to go.

And if you're faced with a choice, and you have to choose,

I hope you choose the one that means the most to you.

And if one door opens to another door closed,

I hope you keep on walking till you find the window.

If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile.

But more than anything,

My wish for you is that this life becomes all that you want it to,

Your dreams stay big and your worries stay small.

You never need to carry more than you can hold,

And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,

I hope you know somebody loves you,

And want the same things too.

Yeah, this is my wish

Everyone should have goals in life. When you have a goal, you live for that goal and put on efforts each day to achieve it. And when you achieve that goal, it brings you unlimited happiness. Goals can be long term as well as short term both. For example, a short term goal can be completing your homework, finishing some work on time, scoring good marks in a class test, cleaning your room, etc. A long term goal can be learning an instrument, a career goal like becoming a doctor, teacher, engineer, learning how to drive, buying a house or a car of your own, etc.

The long term goals play important roles in life because of the time involved and we choose our career goal. Choosing a particular career affects our lives the most during the struggle of achieving it and also once we achieve it will affect your life in many ways. Profession decides the way of your life. So one should choose a career goal wisely keeping interests and choices in mind. The goals vary from individual to individual but there are some goals that should be common to all. For example, serving society by helping others, working for the growth of your nation, fulfilling parent's expectations and respecting them and to become a good human being. Such day to day goals helps people to perform better in life.

Every one of us has goals in life. To fulfil the goals we need to be hard working. Sitting idly does not help fulfilling one's aim. We all must respect the chance we get in life. Respecting the chance means doing hard work. Hard work makes the way to success. It is tough to do hard work but it is important to make our life smooth. A hardworking person is always happy in life. Success is the result of hard work. The person who works hard achieves many things in life. People always love him. He is always respected by everyone. We must not fear failure. Failure is natural to our life. When we fail, we must not stop working hard. We all should believe in ourselves and keep trying hard until we achieve our aims. We can work hard if we have the determination and focus in life. So let's dream bigger and give our best to fulfill it. Dream is not that which you see while sleeping it is something that does not let you sleep." And thoughts result in action." — Abdul Kalam A. P. J.

TORCH BEARERS' INSIGHTS

Dear Students,

Schooling is our first contact with the world, a period of joy, healthy competition, fearing, adjustment, sharing and love. Learning is not a process limited to schools and colleges only, nor does it end with the conclusion of one's school career; it is indeed a lifelong process.

Always remember that the people of fine character live by their values. They are honest and are committed to truthfulness in thought, word, and deed. True character thus encompasses the capacity for self discipline.

“A single sheet of paper cannot decide the future of a person.” So, stop bothering about the previous and focus on next new chapter which might be more interesting.

If you think you are beaten, you are.

If you think you dare not, you don't.

Success begins with your own will,

It's all in your state of mind.

Life's battles are not always won by those who are stronger or faster,

Sooner or later the person who wins,

Is the person who thinks HE CAN.

- Ms. Pinky Jalui

To My Dear Students,

Time has wings and it flies with supersonic speed. Things change, people change. The life cycle continues to revolve around us. The only thing that remains unchanged is the memory of the past which consists both, happy and sad moments.

You are now at the verge of completing your elementary school education encompassed with discipline, culture, strong values and a moulded personality.

Through the medium of 'Cherishable Memories', I wish to congratulate all my dear students for being successful as school students with merit grades. You all have been wonderful students all these years and we would surely cherish the memories throughout our life. I would like to make an appeal to each one of you that whatever may be the circumstances, never ever forget the teachings of your parents and teachers. No one in life would be as close and concerned to you as your parents, because they would not live their life for themselves but for you. You may sometimes have bitter experiences with your parents and teachers. You might feel that you are grown up and you don't require their help any more. But still, the mantra to success is to believe in them and their guidance. I really take pride in announcing that each student of our school is a star and has a very bright future. Each one has higher aims and a systematic, meticulous and step by step plan of action to achieve the same. You are unique with multiple talents and abilities. The sky is just a boundary and not the ultimate for you. You have to go far beyond it. While working towards the targets, never forget the values learnt in school. Today, the country demands multitasking workforce with polite attitude. Be humble and remain grounded. No one can steal your success. No obstacle can stop you from growth. Just go ahead and explore the new horizons!

God Bless!

- Ms. Anupriya Shetty

SO LONG... FAREWELL...GOD BLESS YOU...

As I sit to write this article, fond memories of my school come flooding in my heart and I cannot help but remember the farewell speech which one of our teachers gave us. I have tried my level best to recapture the essence of her message. I would like to share her thoughts with you.

Dear students, I'm sure all of you are waiting to spread your wings and venture out into the world. Good luck! Life throws up both challenges and opportunities. The Art of living is to seize the opportunity to transform one's life into a prayer and use the power of prayer to cut through the challenges of life. No matter where you go, remember, one goes this way but once... So why not make this journey worthwhile, giving to those who travel with us a helping hand, a word of cheer and a smile. We go this way but once... Never more can we go back along the same way. To get more out of life, undo the wrongs, or speak the loving words we know but do not say. We go this way but once... Then let us make this road we travel blossoming and sweet, with helpful kindly deeds and tender words, smoothing the path for the stumbling feet. Many people do not succeed in life, not for the lack of ability or brains or even courage but simply because they never organized their energies around a goal. As Napoleon Hill said, Lack of a goal or definite purpose, is a stumbling block. You should dream BIG, think BIG and achieve BIG. The saint of the youth, Swami Vivekananda, has also said wise words along these similar lines, 'Arise, awake, stop not until you reach your goal'. But in the pursuit of your goal, on your way up, adhere first to the principle of self respect, at the same time having respect for others. A wise man once said – Study diligently, Apply tenaciously, Behave politely, Obey implicitly, Pray whole heartedly, Speak sweetly, Walk gently, Stick on to your goals resolutely, Think carefully, Act righteously, Endure courageously, Persevere patiently, March boldly, Realize quickly, Exercise daily. And yes, there is no better exercise for the heart than reaching down and lifting somebody up!!! So long, Farewell, GOD BLESS YOU!!!

-Ms. Manjit Kaur Bhoee

Dear Students,

We all know that life isn't that simple and that throughout our journey in life we might face numerous challenges, problems and setbacks. The difference between people who succeed in life and those who don't is their ability to face life challenges correctly and not the absence of challenges. A strong and resilient person will get hit by setbacks and life problems just like everyone else but shortly he will stand up and fight again. Learning how to face life's challenges won't only help you become more successful in life but it will also let you live a happier life.

How the way you think affects your ability to face life challenges.

The way you think of yourself affects your ability to face life's challenges. If you believe that you are weak or helpless then most likely you will fulfill the prophecy by not trying again when you fail the first few times.

On the other hand if you believed that you are persistent, strong and resilient you will keep trying until you prove your beliefs true.

The formula for facing life's challenges -

- Its all about finding what works: Know that you have to keep trying things that don't work until you find out something that works
- Be flexible enough: Some people get the theory wrong and keep using the same methods that don't work then claim that they have tried hard enough. In order for your attempts to be effective you need to change your approach every time you try.
- Learn how to bounce: You can't avoid setbacks but you can learn how to bounce back each time you face one. See How to recover from setbacks.

Hello Dear Students,

Want to share something special with you all, So sharing this small but very meaningful story with you.

As a carpenter went home after shutting down his workshop, a black poisonous cobra entered his workshop. The cobra was hungry and hoped to find its supper lurking somewhere within. It slithered from one end to another and accidentally bumped into a double-edged metal axe and got very slightly injured. In anger and seeking revenge, the snake bit the axe with full force. What could the bite do to the metallic axe? Instead the cobra's mouth started bleeding. Out of fury and arrogance, the cobra tried its best to strangle and kill the object that was causing it pain by wrapping itself very tightly around the blades. The next day when the carpenter opened the workshop, he found a seriously cut, dead cobra wrapped around the axe blades. The cobra died not because of someone else's fault but faced these consequences merely because of its own anger and wrath. Sometimes when angry, we try to cause harm to others but as time passes by, we realize that we have caused more harm to ourselves.

For a happy life, it's best that we should learn to ignore and overlook some things, people, incidents, affairs and matters.

It is not necessary that we show a reaction to everything. Step back and ask yourself if the matter is really worth responding or reacting to.
